Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Charles A. Commet has been running his veterinary supply business in Bowdle for as long as anyone can remember, and a few citizens still remember when he bought and sold fresh cream and eggs; and,

WHEREAS, Charles A. Commet is ninety-nine years old, and he still maintains his own garden; and,

WHEREAS, Charles has finally decided to retire, and he will be leaving Bowdle for Washington State to be with his three daughters; and,

WHEREAS, The people of Bowdle will sorely miss Charles and his helpful hints and wealth of experience in treating animals; and,

WHEREAS, Bowdle's citizenry will be celebrating ninety-nine years of having Charles A. Commet as a citizen of their community on Friday, September 21, when he leaves for the west coast:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Friday, September 21, 1984, as in South Dakota, and I join the people of Bowdle in wishing Charles Bon Voyage and many years of health and happiness in Washington.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighteenth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Four

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR
